Police Chiefs Polled On New Gun Controls

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn has again asked 22 police chiefs in the county of Los Angeles to state their opinion on gun control legislation.

In a motion before the Board of Supervisors last June 25, Hahn asked the 47 chiefs of police, the sheriff, and the District Attorney to give the board their opinion on the subject.

Those who did not reply were sent a second letter on July 16.

Twenty-five police chiefs and District Attorney Evelle Younger have responded to the inquiry.

In the latest letter to the police chiefs, Hahn said the following question will be asked:

"Since the past week there have been several major incidents of police officers being shot at and violence in the County, do you have an opinion on gun legislation?"

No response has been received to the previous inquiries from the police chiefs of Ell Segundo, Gardena, Hermosa Beach, and Palos Verdes Estates.

NAA Unit Seats New Officers

Donald R. Mellert of Arcadia has been installed president of the Southwest Los Angeles Chapter of the National Association of Accountants.

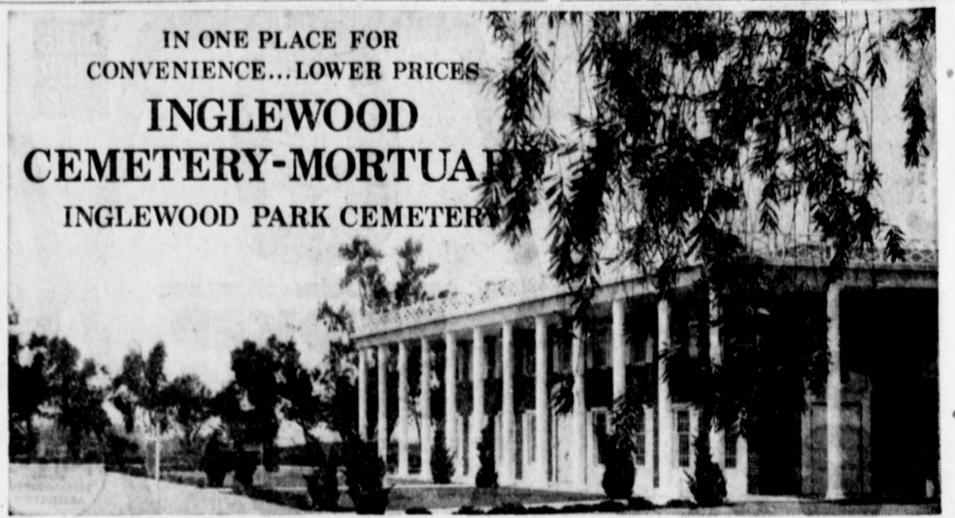

Other new officers include John M. Howlett and Thomas J. O'Connell, both of Palos Verdes Estates, and Dennis R. Beresford of Manhattan Beach, all vice presidents; James J. Brunner, secretary; and John S. Surabian, treasurer.

New directors include William J. Scanlon, communications; William F. Waina, educational activities; Gus Anderson, employment; Paul A. Grosch, manuscripts; Bernard F. Schier, meetings; Richard H. Krause member attendance; Tibor F. Schier, meetings; Richard H. Krause, member attendance; Tibor Von Zsoldos, membership; John Heath, programs; and Donald R. Stoddard, public relations.

Jay R. Guerna was named the most valuable member of 1968.

Free Checking Accounts Now Offered Businesses

Business accounts will now be able to save up to $100 a year in bank check charges through a new free checking account service—the first of its type announced in California—offered by Inglewood-headquartered Centinela Valley Bank, president Rowan Henry announced.

Free checking on business accounts will be allowed, with no limitation on the number of checks written, when a $500 minimum balance is maintained, Henry explained. Prior to this, many banks have featured service-free checking with a minimum balance but only on personal accounts. Centinela Valley Bank itself also offers free checking to individuals when a $300 minimum is maintained.

The new service is available through Centinela Valley Bank's head office at 524 E. Nutwood St., Inglewood, and its branch offices at 1103 Pier Ave., Hermosa Beach, and 8117 Manchester Ave., Playa del Rey. Transactions may be made by mail, Henry pointed out, thus opening the service to any firm in California.

DEFECTIVE LIGHTS

In a nationwide motor vehicle safety check, lights, both front and rear, were found to be the most defective equipment.
